

As a student, pianist Milica Lawrence showed exceptional talent, expressiveness and dedication to music. Her repertoire includes many compositions belonging to the most representative pianistic literature. Her playing is intelligent, analytical, of a wide range of emotions.

As a piano accompanist at Faculty of Philology and Arts, Kragujevac (Serbia), she worked with students at the String Chair. Many of them have shown remarkable results, performed at many concerts and competitions in country and abroad.

Milica Lawrence is an educated, ambitious, flexible artist who has many interests and strives for continuous improvement. She is trustworthy, capable of teamwork and impresses with her energy and enthusiasm.

Marija Djukic

Piano Professor at Faculty of Musical Art, Belgrade, Serbia

marijadjukic@fmu.bg.ac.rs